The concept carrying on from the previous season's wild botanical direction, Nouveau Nature takes a step towards more ornamental conditions, driven by motifs from Art Nouveau and folk tales.

Over to textile South Korean artist Taehyung, here shown from wild plants and vegetables in her illustrations and prints, using tinted dyes that bring a wonderful feel to the artwork. South Korean Agave Creations handcrafts smelter handkerchieves from crushed silk stretched over a metal frame. The folds in the gathered fabric reflect flow details found in corollas.
